Two Player Option

In the two player option, Player 1 takes the first turn until he (or she) gets to the bonus round or loses all his (or her) lives, then Player 2 tries. The first player to reach the bonus round obstacle course waits there for the other player. When the other player arrives, both players appear on the screen and complete the bonus round together. Note that both players always play in the same day of the week.

Playing the Game

It's early morning and the birds are singing. That familiar "TWAP!" could only mean one thing—look out the Paperboy is back! Paperboy 2 is a daredevil stunt rider with a new look—he's a boy or she's a girl! The neighborhood has changed too! There are more types of houses, including mansions, haunted houses, and kids' club houses. There are also more obstacles, such as gargoyles, ghosts, and sewer monsters. Luckily, Paperboy 2 has improved steering ability and can deliver to both sides of the street. Nonetheless, Paperboy 2 still needs help (and skill) to survive the hazards of the suburban jungle!

When the game begins, a screen shows all the houses. The houses that belong to Paperboy 2's subscribers are white. Score, lives remaining, and papers are shown in the upper left corner of the screen.

Score points by getting Paperboy 2 to deliver papers to subscribers' houses—those with paperboxes in front. Make sure they get their paper delivered or they'll drop their subscriptions! Get points when Paperboy 2 does good deeds, such as stopping burglars or runaway baby strollers. Collect bonus points in many ways, including breaking non-subscribers' windows, watering the sunbather, and hassling the garbage man.

At the end of each day, beware! Paperboy 2's boss reviews his (or her) performance. If Paperboy 2 did well, he (or she) gets to wake up bright and early the next morning and make the rounds again. If she (or he) didn't make the grade, it may be time to look for a new job!

Levels

The game has three "weeks" of seven days each (Monday through Sunday). Each week has 20 houses: 10 subscribers and 10 non-subscribers. If Paperboy 2 misses a subscriber's house, then that house becomes a non-subscriber. If Paperboy 2 delivers to all of the subscribers, he (or she) can regain a former subscriber. This is called a Perfect Delivery. A perfect delivery earns resubscribers up to a maximum of 10. After that, a perfect delivery earns a free life. After successfully completing a week, Paperboy earns a promotion to a new route with fancier houses.

Week 1: 20 small houses, a gas station, and a market.

Week 2: 10 small and 10 medium houses, a gas station, a market, a carnival, and a park.

Week 3: 10 medium and 10 big houses, a gas station, a market, a carnival, a park, a car dealer, and a mall.

Training Course: In addition, there is a bonus round training course at the end of each day. The training course grows longer with each week. If Paperboy 2 crashes in the bonus round, he (or she) doesn't lose a life.

Scoring

The score indicator appears in the upper left hand corner for Player 1 and in the upper right hand corner for Player 2. Line 1 shows the number of papers and lives remaining. Line 2 shows the game score. Line 3 is the breakage bonus that is added to the score while time remains in the bonus round. Score points by hitting objects with newspapers.

If Paperboy made all deliveries, she (or he) keeps existing subscribers and gains additional subscribers (to a maximum of 10). When Paperboy gets through an entire week of daring deliveries, she (or he) makes the headlines of The Daily Sun and earns a promotion! Along with the promotion, the next Route Number appears. Paperboy begins the next game on that route
